

ASQ Weighs In on Toyota Recall

Ron Atkinson, ASQ past-president, was recently featured in the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel newspaper regarding the recent Toyota recalls. Click here to read the article.

What Is Blogrige?

A new blog has been established for the Baldrige National Quality Program called Blogrige. Featuring commentary from Baldrige leadership and staff, the blog provides a place for quality professionals to discuss and exchange ideas related to performance excellence. Click here to visit the blog.

Tips for Crafting a Successful Fellow Nomination - Part 6

The sixth article in a series explaining common pitfalls that cause non-acceptance of Fellow nominations is now available. Read Article 6 - Consulting and Teaching. Contact Karen Prosser for additional information.

Five Minutes, 20 Slides: Presenters Wanted for Excite @ Nite!

The ASQ Technical Program Committee is planning an Excite @ Nite! session during the World Conference on Quality and Improvement opening reception May 23. Similar to Pecha Kucha and Ignite!, Excite @ Nite! gives individuals five minutes to tell a story with 20 slides (slides will automatically advance every 15 seconds). Talk about any topic of interest to you, but keep it short and exciting, and expect audience feedback. Click here to learn more. Those interested in presenting can contact Dennis Arter.

Refer Someone in March and Win BIG!

For every member you recruit in March through the Each One Reach One (EORO) recruitment program, you'll earn ASQ Bucks (1 ASQ Buck = $1) and be entered to win special prizes such as: all expenses paid trip to the World Conference on Quality and Improvement ($2,000 value); one free registration to the World Conference ($900 value); or a Dell Mini 10v Netbook ($250 value). Click here for more information.