

World Quality Month Poster

Create awareness of World Quality Month at your October or November section meetings by displaying this new poster! The letter-sized poster, which measures 8.5 x 11 inches, offers a sizable white space area where you can add a special World Quality Month message or include event information.

Download the World Quality Month poster...

It's Time for Quality to Go Viral!

You've heard of online videos that go "viral." Now it's your turn to help quality go viral by submitting a video for the YouQ contest! It's simple: send us a video explaining how a quality tool has improved or made a difference in your life. Create a group video with your members and generate awareness for your section or division. Did we mention that the creator of the most popular video will also win an iPad2?

Learn more about YouQ video contest...

Overview of ASQ's Strategic Planning Process

ASQ's Wisconsin Forward Award 80-page application is intense. To help break down the application into "bite-size" servings, the Baldrige Burger sliders were created. This week, learn about ASQ's strategic planning process.

View the Baldrige burger slider...

Educators: This Conference Is For You!

The NQEC conference, held November 6–8 in Indianapolis, Ind., is this year's best opportunity to learn from other educators, benchmark your progress, and learn even more about using quality methods to increase student achievement.

Learn more about NQEC...