

World Quality Month Website Launches!

The World Quality Month website, a central hub of celebration activities, has recently been launched. Be sure to visit the site frequently to see what individuals and organizations are doing to raise the global voice of quality this November.

Visit the World Quality Month site...

Supply and Demand Hits the Classroom – A Quality for Life™ Video Story

Going back to school is tough, especially for school districts that need to provide school supplies for their students amid budget cuts. Hear how ASQ member Kenneth Getkin used quality control to provide on-demand supplies for the Mt. Lebanon school district in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Watch the Quality for Life video...

Take the 2012 Manufacturing Outlook Survey

ASQ recently asked members in the manufacturing sector to take part in the 2012 Manufacturing Outlook Survey. If you've already responded, thank you! If you haven't, please share your thoughts by answering 10 short questions about what you and your company expect in 2012. Your answers will be kept confidential, and will only be presented in summary form. The results will help identify trends in the manufacturing sector.

Complete the survey...