

Enjoy June's Member Gift – Baldrige Resources

This month's complimentary member gift is a collection of Baldrige performance excellence resources. Discover what it takes to become an award-winning organization by learning best practices from Baldrige experts with this collection of webinars and other resources. You have access to this bundle through June 30.

This bundle includes:

- Steps taken by award-winning organizations to transform themselves into high-performing operational systems through the use of the Baldrige process and framework.
- Wisdom and “silver bullets” gained by the Boeing Corporation as it won the Malcolm Baldrige Quality Award.
- Bonus resources: 2011-2012 Criteria for Performance Excellence and self-analysis worksheet.

Download your member gift...

Say Cheese! World Conference Photos Now Available

Pictures from the 2011 World Conference on Quality and Improvement can now be viewed and purchased online. When visiting the site, enter “ASQ Convention 2011” in the search field. You will be prompted to enter an email address to access the photos. Don't worry, entering your email address will not subject you to any marketing email. Photos from the member leader events is also available.

View World Conference photos...

Chair-Elect to Speak at Safety Summit

As a result of ongoing advocacy efforts to raise The Global Voice of Quality™, ASQ Chair-elect Jim Rooney has been asked to present at the Fourth U.S.-China Product Safety Summit. The summit, scheduled October 13–14 in Washington, DC, is an opportunity for ASQ to assist the United States Consumer Product Safety Commission in ensuring the safety of consumer products.

Learn more...

ASQ Weekly Preview: Employee Engagement

Employee engagement was a big topic with the ASQ World Conference keynote and featured speakers. Find out (or relive) their words in the June 8 issue of ASQ Weekly.
