

A Big Win for ASQ's Advocacy Efforts

In an advancement of the Society's advocacy efforts related to healthcare reform, ASQ representatives met in Washington, DC, November 3 with Dr. David Blumenthal, national coordinator for health information technology, and senior members of his staff. The meeting explored how ASQ can partner with the Office of the National Coordinator (ONC) to modernize health IT-with a goal of reducing health costs for the federal government by $12 billion over 10 years. Click here for more information.

Becoming a Baldrige Examiner Has Its Benefits

The Baldrige National Quality Program is currently looking for applicants to serve as volunteer examiners. As an examiner, you will receive complimentary training on how to evaluate an application using the Baldrige criteria, which you can use to achieve world-class results in your own organization. For more information or to apply, click here.